

Day 24: Between Art & Quarantine

For our final project, we are going to do something fun that has gone viral! Are you up for the challenge?

#gettychallenge #betweenartandquarantine

Before you begin, take a look at this slideshow: Between Art And Quarantine

- Search #betweenartandquarantine and #gettyartchallenge for ideas or search the Getty Museum online catalog for art to recreate.
- Get a model or someone to photograph you, since you can also model for this too.
- Find props, clothes, fabric, sheets, flowers or whatever you need to make it look as similar as possible.
- Do any necessary makeup or changes to hair.
- Look at where the light is coming from and try to match the direction of light.
- Consider your background and do something similar
- Shoot a bunch of shots till you get it right.
- Edit to make your colors match the original. If you are copying a painting, run your photo through a painting art filter like Prisma Photo Editor.
- Create a diptych (collage of 2 photos side by side)
  - Left side: the original artwork
  - Right side: the photo of your recreation

When you turn in the assignment, you must provide:

1. the name of the original artwork
2. the artist's name who created it
3. the year it was created
4. what medium (oil paint, acrylic, graphite, photography, etc) it was created with
5. WHY you chose this artwork

Look up #betweenartandquarantine #gettychallenge for inspiration on Instagram. Turn in your image and answer the questions into Google Classroom francesca_busca Today I feel like this... The absinthe drinker (Picasso). This one was for @marinedelphine from @nout75 ! 🍷

Jenniferkirkeby Oh, hey, it's Frida Friday!

Self Portrait, 1948 by Frida Kahlo.

Frida Kahlo (1907-1954) was a Mexican painter known for her many portraits, self-portraits, and works inspired by the nature and artifacts Mexico. She employed a naïve folk style to explore questions of identity, gender, class, and race in Mexican society. In 1948, Frida's health was deteriorating and this self-portrait is the only painting she painted that year.

@fridakahlo.

sarikalakari Another #Cubist, #Turkishpainter Hale Asaf's self portrait for the #gettymuseumchallenge. This was basically making that fancy coat lapel with paper, modifying a corduroy golf cap with a couple of masks to look like the fancy hat and the MAKE-UP.....Check out my 'Spock-brow' 😊! The BG is the same saree that was used as the flapper dress in the I amnicks recreation ...
