

High School December Bear Pride

Students were nominated by school staff for Bear Pride to recognize their accomplishments, acts of kindness, etc. both large and small. Ten nominees were randomly drawn during our assembly. Congratulations!

Wyatt Anderson

Nominated by: Kitchen Staff

For: Helping a student everyday with his tray

Dana Melby

Nominated by: Mrs. Goudge

For: I am impressed with how hard Dana works in Biology. She never settles in anything she does with the words "good enough".

Emma Rude

Nominated by: Ms. Brown

For: For having a happy spirit and lighting up the room with her smile

Theodore Tollefson

Nominated by: Mrs. Goudge

For: I want to thank Teddy for his "new and improved" attitude in Biology. It makes the hour a lot more enjoyable.

GiAnne Cadreau

Nominated by: Ms. Brown

For: GiAnne will offer to help others—myself included without being asked. She does it out of the goodness of her heart.

Michael Nunez

Nominated by: Mrs. Stewart

For: Michael has jumped in and is very quickly catching up to his peers playing clarinet. He is also always so kind and polite to everyone around him.

Isaac Spears

Nominated by: Anonymous

For: His humor that helps others by putting a smile on their faces

John Davis

Nominated by: Mrs. Goudge

For: I appreciate how hard he is working in Chemistry, despite how hard it is.

Warren Thompson

Nominated by: Mrs. Mendick

For: You picked up garbage that somebody else had thrown and put it in the garbage can.

Jayna Tronnes

Nominated by: Mrs. Stewart

For: Her spunky attitude and how she takes pride in what she does. She is aware of those around her, not just herself.
