December Student of the Month

Holden

Kindergarten

Ms. Hood

Our student of the month for December is Holden. Holden is a sweet, responsible, funny, artistic, and hardworking student. He comes to school everyday with a smile and an eagerness to learn. Holden loves to make us laugh and help his friends. He is very responsible and I can always count on Holden to do the right thing. He is a shining star and a dedicated student. Holden's favorite part of the day is math and he wants to be an illustrator when he grows up. Way to go Holden! Keep up the hard work!

December Student of the Month

Paislee

Kindergarten

Mrs. Oxenford

Paislee is our December Student of the Month! Paislee is a happy, sweet, funny girl! She loves "owlcorns" and unicorns! Her favorite thing to do at school is recess and choice time. Her favorite color is all the colors of the rainbow. Paislee is a great role model and a hard worker. You Rock Kindergarten Paislee!

Mrs. Oxenford

December Student of the Month

Everly

1st Grade

Ms. Holzgang

The amazing first grade Student of the Month is Everly! Everly is such a hard worker and is always trying her best! Everly is always a self-manager and has a positive mindset. She is kind to her classmates and helps others. Everly is a leader and shows cooperation in the classroom. Keep up the good work!

Ms. Holzgang

December Student of the Month

Leo

1st /2nd Grade

Mrs. Skenzick

Our focus skill this month was “cooperation,” and Leo really stands out with this skill. We do a lot of small group and table group work, and Leo always listens and accepts others no matter what. When he plays with classmates or shares materials, he is always aware of how to interact in a kind and caring way. Thanks for showing cooperation, Leo, and for being a thoughtful and positive leader in our classroom!

Mrs Skenzick

December Student of the Month

Lace

2nd Grade

Mr. Franklin

Lace has had a wonderful start to the school year. She is a super reader who is always willing to try. Lace treats her classmates well, and is always one of the first to volunteer to help. I have been very impressed with Lace's adaptability to our classroom when things might not be just right. She is a great help to our class and does an amazing job focusing on what is important.

December Student of the Month

Blakely

2nd Grade

Mrs. Johnson

Blakely is our student of the month for December! Blakely is a hard-working, always-on-task, work-completing Super Student! She shows cooperation by being kind and respectful. Blakely is lots of fun and has lots of friends. She gets along with everyone and makes us feel happy. We are so lucky to have Blakely in our class!

December Student of the Month

Kenley

3rd

Mrs Varozza

Our amazing student of the month is Kenley Smith. Kenley works hard each and every day. She is also very helpful and reliable. When she finishes her work early, you can catch her writing down her skip-counting and multiplication facts. She is always setting a positive example for our class, and shows cooperation with her teacher and peers daily. Keep up the excellent Work, Kenley!

December Student of the Month

Finn

3rd Grade

Miss Reynolds

Our December Student of the Month is Finn! Finn is always a great example for others and his peers recognize his positive influence. He is respectful and responsible. Finn can always be relied on to do the right thing and follow directions the first time. He gets along well with others and has a great attitude. Great work, Finn!

♥ Miss Reynolds

December Student of the Month

Ryder

4th Grade

Ms. Thom

Ryder is a kind, responsible, respectful student who works really hard on a daily basis! Ryder is a friend to all students and has integrity no matter what. I've loved seeing Ryder work hard and rock 4th grade!

December Student of the Month

Noah

4th Grade

Ms. Hutton

Congratulations to Noah, my December Student of the Month! This month teachers are focusing on a student who shows cooperation and I thought of Noah right away. Noah is a great team player. He's fair and always looking out for others. He wants everyone to be successful. You can count on Noah to help a classmate understand a concept or to stay on track. Noah's kind, thoughtful and patient with everyone. His positive attitude and sense of humor make him one of the best people to work with!

December Student of the Month

Baylee Farrar

5th Grade

Ms. Houghtaling

Baylee is someone who works hard every single day! She is a goofy, kind, and funny. She is a great friend to her friends and is respectful to everyone! While Baylee may be quiet she has a fun personality once you get to know her! She is a caring friend who has grown so much already in 5th grade! Way to crush 5th grade so far Baylee! Congratulations :)

Ms. Houghtaling

December Student of the Month

Kalyani

5th Grade

Mrs. Nienhaus

Kalyani is the student of the month for December in Mrs. Nienhaus's class. Kalyani is a fun and spirited student, who is truly a friend to all. Kalyani excels in her communication skills when working with others and loves collaborative work. Kalyani's sense of humor and kind demeanor make her an asset to our group as a whole. Keep up the great work, Kalyani!

December Student of the Month

PAUL

Bridges

Mrs. Caswell

Congratulations, Paul!!

Paul is our Student of the month for December.

Paul is working super hard in Math group and has come so far in his Rocket Math and double digit multiplication. This guy knows where to place the decimal in complicated multi-digit problems! He is becoming a decimal pro!

Paul has a wonderful sense of humor and a joke for every occasion. He's a fun student to have in the classroom. He has many stories to share and adds a fun twist to our lessons.

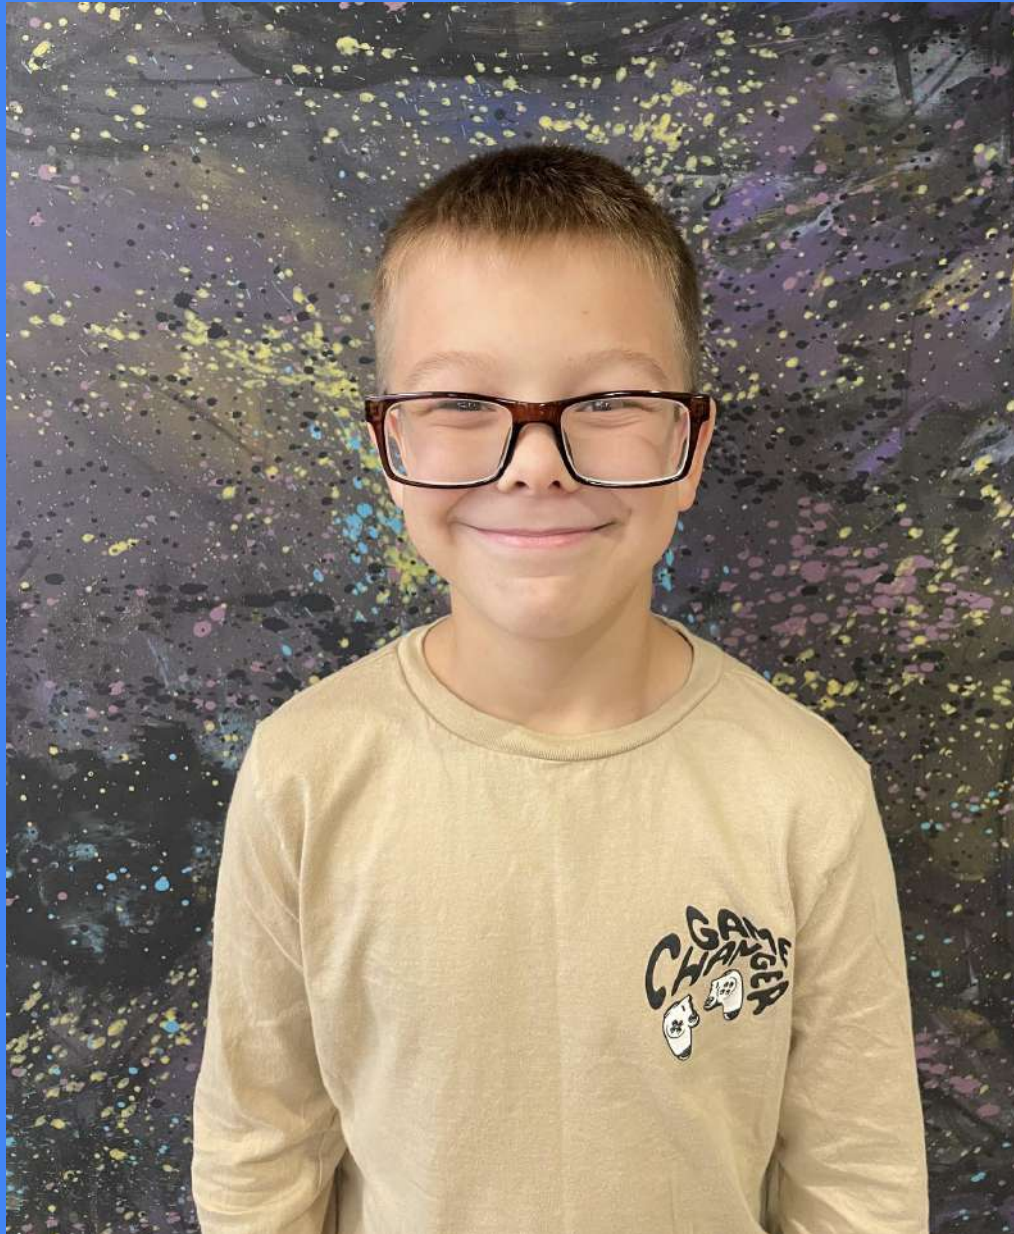

Paul is also a very loyal friend. He is encouraging to others and helps motivate them to do their best.

December Student of the Month

Easton
PE
Mrs. Herbert

Congratulations to Easton, in 4th Grade, for being our PE student of the month. Easton is new to our school this year and he is doing such a great job joining in and making friends. He has a great sense of humor and I love his positive attitude even if we are trying something new. He does a great job cooperating with his peers. His favorite PE game so far is Islands in the Marsh . At home Easton likes to play football. He likes everything we do in PE. His favorite healthy snack is salads and fruit. Easton's health tip for everyone is to not push yourself too hard, so you don't get hurt! Proud of you Easton! ~Mrs. Herbert
