Directions

1. Reread the passage with a partner. Highlight the key details of each of Dr. Reed's experiments.

- Highlight details of the mosquito experiment in yellow.
- Highlight details of the contaminated clothing experiment in green.

2. Now work with your partner to brainstorm the risks and rewards of being a volunteer in the mosquito and contaminated clothing experiments. Summarize your ideas in the chart. Think about:

- How might the volunteer's health and life be affected if he got sick?
- What would the volunteer receive and how might he feel if he participated?

	Mosquito	Clothing
Risks	You could become very ill.
Rewards	You could help find the cause of a terrible disease.

In the next activity, you will be taking on the perspective of a potential volunteer for Dr. Reed's mosquito experiments. Before any volunteer could participate, Dr. Reed asked each person to review and sign a consent form.

In order to understand the central ideas in this consent form, the volunteers had to read the details carefully to determine exactly what they were signing up for.

What does the consent form say is the goal of the experiments? (To determine the method of transmission of yellow fever.)

The undersigned, Antonio Benino Antonio Benino being more than twenty-five years of age, native of Cerceda, in the province of Corima, the son of Manuel Benino and Josefa Castro here states by these presents, being in the enjoyment and exercise of his own very free will, that he consents to submit himself to experiments for the purpose of determining the methods of transmission of yellow fever, made upon his person by the Commission appointed for this purpose by the Secretary of War of the United States, and that he gives his consent to undergo the said experiments for the reasons and under the conditions below stated.

The undersigned understands perfectly well that in case of the development of yellow fever in him, that he endangers his life to a certain extent but it being entirely impossible for him to avoid the infection during his stay in this island, he prefers to take the chance of contracting it intentionally in the belief that he will receive from the said Commission the greatest care and the most skillful medical service.

It is understood that at the completion of these experiments, within two months from this date, the undersigned will receive the sum of $100 in American gold and that in case of his contracting yellow fever at any time during his residence in this camp, he will receive in addition to that sum a further sum of $100 in American gold, upon his recovery and that in case of his death because of this disease, the Commission will transmit the said sum (two hundred American dollars) to the person whom the undersigned shall designate at his convenience.

The undersigned binds himself not to leave the bounds of this camp during the period of the experiments and will forfeit all right to the benefits named in this contract if he breaks this agreement.

And to bind himself he signs this paper in duplicate, in the Experi-

Directions

1. Read the following passage from Dr. Reed's Medical Volunteer Consent form.

"The undersigned understands perfectly well that in case of the development of yellow fever in him, that he endangers his life to a certain extent but it being entirely impossible for him to avoid the infection during his stay in this island, he prefers to take the chance of contracting it intentionally in the belief that he will receive from the same Commission the greatest care and the most skillful medical service."

2. Paraphrase the passage and explain what the volunteers consent to.

Step 1: Read the passage. Discuss the meaning of any vocabulary words you do not know with your partner.

Step 2: Paraphrase each phrase of the passage that appears in the table below. When you paraphrase, you rewrite the text in your own words. (Hint: Think about the key words you need to capture and what they mean.)

Step 3: Share your paraphrase with your partner to determine if you both captured the meaning of the quote. If the paraphrase doesn't make sense, revise it.

NOTE: Look at the length of each quote. The paraphrase you write should be about the same length.
