

Disney Families,

Below are suggested supply lists to help your child set up for the upcoming school year. We made sure to keep in mind that students will be working from a personal workspace as we start our year, and we will have the opportunity for a small group session in the classroom. The items below are suggested items only and not required. We will have extra supplies at school to make sure every student has what they need to start the year!

Teachers will be giving you more details on what to bring to school for the small group, “in person,” days in September. We are excited to launch the learning journey for the students on September 8th. We can’t wait to get back to the best part of our job, working with our Disney families!
