Distance Learning FAQ's

Question: What will be the primary means of communication between schools and parents/students?

Answer: The primary tools for communication between teachers and families will be through phone calls, parent provided email addresses, Remind, Seesaw, or Google Classroom.

Question: Who should I call if I have questions about my child's homework?

Answer: At this time, please call your classroom teacher if you have questions.

Question: How will my elementary students receive homework?

Answer: Students will receive weekly homework through one of these methods:

- o email
- o guardians will pick up in the school entryway
- o packets will be mailed home
- o in limited cases delivered by bus with the food delivery

Teachers have established with their students' family the best way to ensure the lessons are delivered.

Question: What quarter of the school year will we be in on March 30th?

Answer: Students will be in their fourth quarter and should follow fourth quarter schedules.

Question: What are students' roles and responsibilities.

Answer: See the table below.

Student Roles and Responsibilities

- Establish daily routines for engaging in the learning experiences
- Identify a space in your home where you can work effectively and successfully
- Identify a space in your home where you can participate in live online learning. Sit at a table with a wall behind you, if possible. Follow the school dress code
- Regularly monitor online platforms
- Engage in all learning with academic honesty
- Communicate proactively with your teachers if you cannot meet deadlines or require additional support
- Comply with School Internet Safety policies including expectations for online etiquette

For questions about	Contact
---------------------	---------

a course, assignment, or resource	the relevant teacher
a personal, academic or social-emotional concern	your assigned counselor
other issues related to distance learning	your school principal or assistant principal

Question: What are parents' roles and responsibilities.

Answer: See the table below.

Parent Roles and Responsibilities

One teacher each day will be communicating to you or your child. Parents/Guardians or student will be asked to respond that they have received the communication.

Provide support for your children by:

- Establishing routines and expectations
- Defining the physical space for your child to study
- Monitoring communications from your child's teachers
- Beginning and ending each day with a check-in
- Taking an active role in helping your child process his/her learning
- Establishing times for quiet and reflection
- Encouraging physical activity and/or exercise
- Remaining mindful of your child's stress or worry
- Monitoring how much time your child is spending online
- Keeping your child social, but set rules around their social media interactions

For questions about	Contact
a course, assignment, or resource	the relevant teacher
a personal, academic or social-emotional concern	your child's assigned counselor
other issues related to distance learning	your school principal or assistant principal