PHAKAMANI PEGA TO PERFORM AT FIRST PARISH OF WESTWOOD

On Saturday, September 26th at 7PM, music lovers in Westwood and surrounding communities will be treated to a unique opportunity – an evening of South African music, performed by Phakamani Pega & Friends, courtesy of First Parish of Westwood's Music in the Meeting House concert series.

The concert will take place in First Parish's Meetinghouse, at 248 Nahatan Street, Westwood. Tickets are $15 ($10/seniors & students, $25/family), and will be available at the door.

Phakamani's concerts celebrate the beautiful music and stirring history of the Zulu tribe, one of the largest and most prominent in South Africa, with an exciting music culture. He was born in Soweta, South Africa, and grew up singing traditional songs in church, playing the penny whistle, and learning to master the violin and piano. As a young man, he came to the United States to attend Boston's Berklee College of Music, where he has worked in a variety of ways both to share the music of South Africa with his new culture and to help those he left behind in his homeland.

The evening promises to be educational, entertaining, and uplifting. For more information, contact First Parish at 781-326-5344.

FIRST PARISH TO HOST VOICE WORKSHOP

On Sunday, October 4th, First Parish of Westwood will host a Voice Workshop in the Meeting House at 2:30PM. Facilitated by Voice Therapist and Speech Pathologist Barbara Worth, this free event is open to all who are interested in conditioning the singing voice and preserving it as it ages.

Through videos, demonstration and practice, the workshop will provide a better understanding of the ways in which the voice works. Voice production, voice care, and the changes seen with the aging process will be discussed, and participants will practice singing exercises designed to maintain and preserve a healthy voice. A reception will follow the workshop so participants can get to know one another better.

Barbara Worth, BM, MS, CCC-SLP, is a Speech Pathologist and the Senior Voice Therapist at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center. She holds an undergraduate degree in Music Therapy from The Catholic University of American in Washington, DC, and a Masters in Speech-Language Pathology from Northeastern University. Barbara lectures extensively in academic and clinical settings, both locally and nationally. She has over 20 years of clinical experience and currently specializes in the treatment of voice disorders in professional voice users, singers, and people with gender identity disorder.

If you would like to attend the workshop, RSVP by September 28th to First Parish Music Director Sarah Tocco at haera@usa.net, or contact the church office at 781-326-5344 (parish1st@firstparishwestwood.org).
