Scoring

After reviewing and completing the Teach4x Self-Evaluation, color in the Teach4x Heat Map based on your ratings in the Four Pillars. Start in the Technology Pillar with the starred skill/heat map section and color outwards. Continue by filling in sections in a clockwise fashion based on your scores. The goal is to eventually fill your Heat Map! In the meantime, it will give you a good picture of your educator assets and areas of growth!
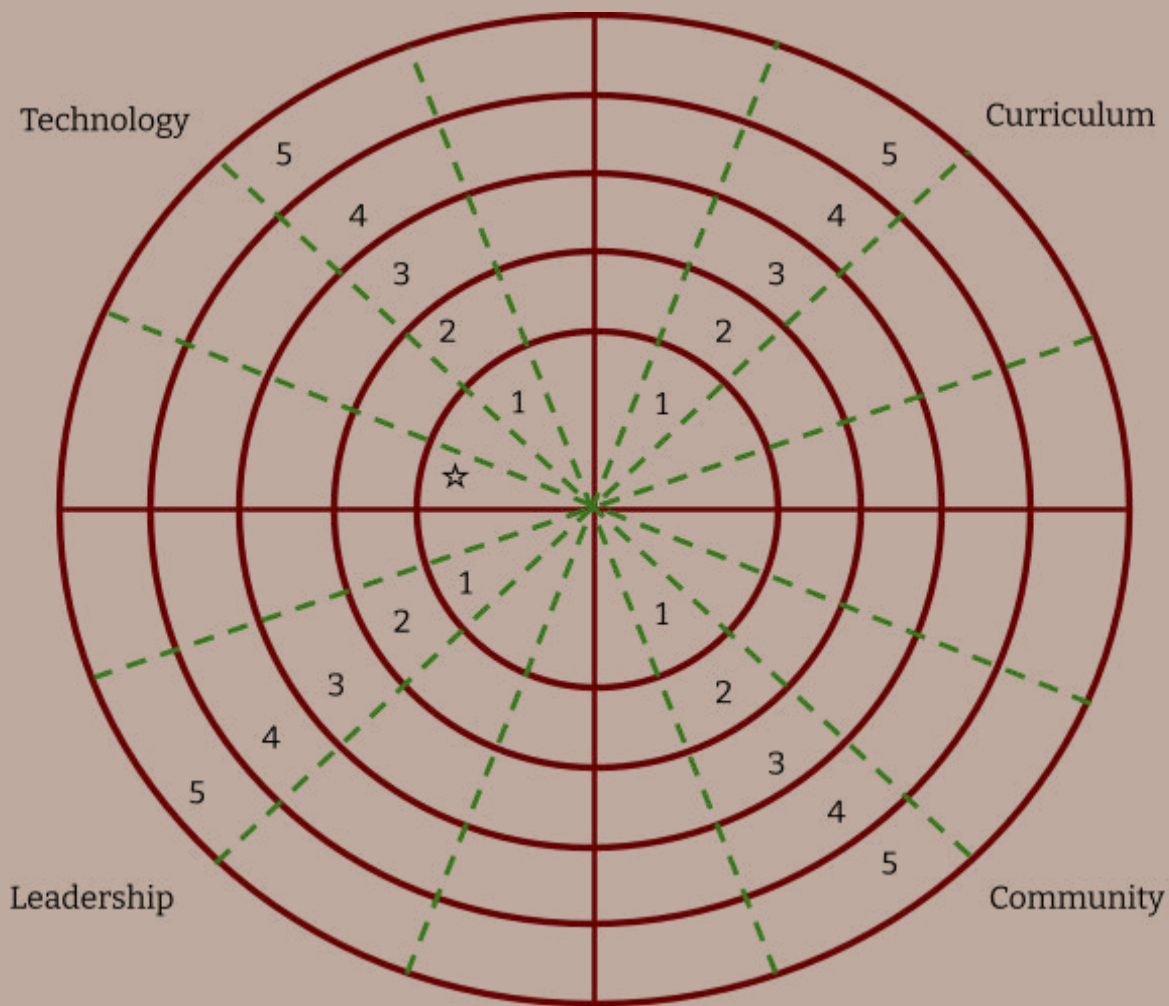

This self-evaluation is created by Teach4x. Teach4x is an on demand educator development service that consists of veteran high school teachers, Scott Feyereisen, Jessica Huirache, and Erik Johnson. Find out more at www.teach4x.com.
