

The ELL report shows progress in English Language development using Newton Public School and State standards. The rubric describes the student's progress in Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing using a scale of 0-5. This report is sent home to families two times a year. It will show you how your child is developing English for school and social purposes.

	January	June
Speaking Level
Listening Level
Reading Level
Writing Level
Comments:		