Summer Reading for English III is suggested.

Students who choose to read and complete an assignment will be given extra credit in their English III class. These assignments may be given to the teacher at the end of the first week of school to receive extra credit. Responses should be typed, double-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font

- Students entering English III Honors should read two novels from the list and create a creative response.
- Students entering English III Standard should read one text from the list and create a creative response.

Creative Response:

1. Write 3-4 diary entries from 3 characters in the novel. Make sure that the diary entries show your understanding of the character and the plot.
2. Create a calendar with sketches of important events from the novel. Be sure that your calendar shows the major events from the novel.
3. Create a visual aid that displays the theme of the novel.
4. Create a children's book of the novel you read. The book should be created for a student in the third grade.
