

WHAT TO WRITE

BE ON POINT

ESSAY

INTRODUCTION

H.I.T.

Hook- Get your reader's attention

Information-Provide background knowledge about your topic.

Thesis-State your claim & two/three specific details

BODY

A.C.E.

Answer- Answer the question

Cite Evidence-Paraphrase or quote textual evidence

Explain-Tell how the evidence supports your answer

CONCLUSION

R.U.N.

Restate Thesis- Rephrase your thesis statement

Underline-Summarize your key points

Nail/Nudge-End with a strong statement about your topic or encourage your reader to take action