

Exit Prompts for Exit Tickets

- 1) Pick a word/concept that you learned in today's class and use/write it in a sentence.
- 2) Draw a picture that shows/represents what you learned about today.
- 3) Finish this sentence: Today I learned...
- 4) How would you explain today's class to a 5 year old?
- 5) Write a poem, haiku, rhyme, or limerick about today's class.
- 6) Draw a concept map or a flow chart based on the ideas/concepts/definitions that you have learned in class.
- 7) In 2 to 3 sentences, explain why the information/skills that you are learning about in class is/are important to you.
- 8) Discuss 1 way today's lesson could be used in the "real world."
- 9) How could what you learned today make you a better person or a better friend?
- 10) How would you explain today's class to someone who couldn't see or hear?
- 11) Summarize today's lesson in approximately 25 carefully chosen words.
- 12) What is the one of most important things that you learned about today? Please explain.
- 13) Of the strategies/skills/lessons that you learned today, which one do you find to be the most useful? Please explain.
- 14) What is the most interesting idea/thing that you got from today's class? Please explain.
- 15) Explain how the things you learned/discussed today relate to your own life.
- 16) What connection did you make today that made you say to yourself, "AHA! I finally get it!"
- 17) What was the best part of today's class/ lesson?
- 18) Did working with a partner today make your task(s) easier or harder? Please explain.
- 19) Describe three things that you could have done to make today's class a better experience (for you and/or others).
- 20) What can you do to improve your understanding of what you learned today?
- 21) What is something that really helped you in your learning today?
- 22) Write a question that you'd like to ask regarding what you are now learning about.
- 23) What do you need more help with?
- 24) What is something that you learned about that you still do not understand?
- 25) What would you like to review during the next class?
- 26) Discuss 1 topic that we have already covered that you would like to learn more about.
- 27) Predict how the information you learned today will affect you 5 years from now.
- 28) Do you agree or disagree with what you learned today? Defend your answer with at least 3 reasons.
- 29) Compare what you know today to what you knew 5 years ago.
- 30) Compare what you know today to what you may know 5 years from now.
- 31) Justify how what you learned today connects to at least two other classes that you have this quarter.

