Expression Talks

This type of Math Talk is intended to show that there are many different ways to group these dots, identify the quantity, and describe them with mathematical expressions.

As students share, ask:
- What questions do you have for ____ about how they saw the dots?
- Who saw them in the same or a similar way?
- Who saw them in a different way?
- How are these ways similar? How are they similar?