

FANTASY MAPS

- Complete value scale worksheet.
- Plan layout, land design and terrain using the worksheet.
Practice drawing trees, mountains and other features.
- Pour rice onto paper and trace around to create islands and land. Use a pencil.
- Add color using marker or watercolor.
- Trace over all pencil lines using a fine point sharpie.
- Tear edges of paper if you would like.

PROCEDURES:

LEARNING INTENTIONS & SUCCESS CRITERIA

- Students will use knowledge of line and value to create their map.
- Students will practice, then employ line and mark making techniques.
- Students will plan the areas of their map on a worksheet.
- Students will create a name for their unique map, 6 locations, one sea creature and a compass
- I know my map is successfully completed when...
- I have used variety of symbols and textures to signify different terrain and bodies of water.
- I added personal details added in each area (ex. Artist Isle, Introvert Island, Landon's Landing)
- I drew a compass, key and/or other symbolic features.
- I applied my knowledge of line to create a variety values and textures.
- I used hatching or another value shading techniques.

Student Examples

Name: _____

Class: _____

Value Scales

Value: The lightness or darkness of a color

