Holly Guido and Nancy Baglio, running Battle of the Books, requesting $519.53 for each child to have a book.

Tabled – seems like a lot of $. Going to check back with them – possible ask the parents to buy the books or get them from a different source.

UPDATE: So, the final count for what 5th-6th grade needs for Battle of the Books is:

3 copies Because of Mr. Terrupt $6.00 each = $18.00

3 copies Marie Curie $7.99 each = $23.97

Total of $41.97

I will order these on Amazon this weekend so the children have them for next week. If the PTO is willing to reimburse, I will then add them to our library collection. Thanks.

As for 3rd-4th grade, Ms. Baglio has not given me any information so I will that up to her to decide what to do.
