Perseverance

Person of the Quarter:

Martin Luther King, Jr.

"I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment, I still have a dream.."

Here at the Primary School we show perseverance as we learn new things that may be difficult for us. We do not give up.

DRESS FOR THE WEATHER!

With colder weather here ensure you are dressing in layers. When awaiting the school bus, walking to school, or recess time it is important to wear warm clothing.

FIELD DAY

Field Day will be Friday, May 23rd at Bloom-Carroll Elementary. The times are below for each grade level. Volunteers are needed for this fun and exciting day for the students!

You must be or will need to be an "approved parent volunteer" for the Bloom-Carroll School District. You must have a volunteer form on file and a background check done within the past 5 years at Bloom-Carroll by April 25th (sooner the better). If you are not sure that you have an expired background check, please email Jennifer Luckhaupt at jennifer.luckhaupt@bloomcarroll.org

5th Grade: 9:15 - 10:35am

4th Grade: 10:00 - 11:20am

2nd Grade: 10:45am - 12:05pm

Kindergarten: 1:00 - 2:20pm

1st Grade: 1:30 - 2:50pm

3rd Grade: 1:45 - 3:05pm

Please email Mr. Casperson at mark.casperson@bloomcarroll.org if you're interested in helping out in the morning and/or afternoon.
