

Seneca students have been very busy this month in art class. We have tried squishing paint between wax paper, moving yarn around on sticky paper, bingo dabbing or water-colour painting valentine cards, snapping paint off of elastic bands, and creating some beautiful Batik designs. As always, we try to engage the kids by using as many senses as possible.

