

1. The Judicial Branch is set up by _____
2. Federal judges are confirmed by _____
3. Those who support the idea of _____ believe judges should interpret the Constitution by taking into account ongoing changes in society.
4. US attorneys are appointed by _____ and confirmed by the _____ to serve in each judicial district.
5. _____ courts handle most federal cases.
6. A justice of the Supreme Court is assigned to which courts? _____
7. Which court often holds trials in major ports that import large amounts of foreign goods? _____
8. _____ established judicial review.
9. In order for a case to come before the Supreme Court, it must deal with a significant _____ question.
10. The Supreme Court has _____ jurisdiction in cases involving two or more states.
11. In order for the Supreme Court to reach a decision on a case, a _____ of justices must agree.
12. Which court hears appeals about claims for benefits from people who used to be in the armed forces? _____
13. Territorial courts are basically the same as what other kind of courts?

14. The court system in the US is considered a _____ court system because it has both state and federal courts.

15. Which court(s) can exercise both original and appellate jurisdiction?

16. What kind of jurisdiction allows a state or a federal court to hear a case?

17. What court hears a case that often ends in Congress appropriating money to the plaintiff? _____

18. Which court hears customs cases? _____

19. The problem with state courts under the _____ was that each state interpreted the laws differently.

20. Judges to constitutional and special courts are appointed by _____ and confirmed by the _____.

21. _____ courts may overrule or modify decisions of the lower courts.

22. A judge/justice may be removed from office by _____

23. A judge who supports _____ will follow precedent and the original intent of the law.

24. _____ courts are federal trial courts.

25. _____ courts greatly reduce the number of cases the Supreme Court has to hear.

26. A _____ opinion is issued when a justice disagrees with the majority opinion.

27. The government's prosecutor is the _____.

28. Most of the Supreme Court's cases come to it on _____ from the federal courts of appeals and the highest state courts.

29. Which court was specifically created by the Constitution? _____

30. Place the following in the correct order:
oral arguments presented, opinions issued, writ issued, brief filed

31. The court that first hears a case is said to have _____ jurisdiction.

32. The list of cases to be heard by a court is called a _____.

33. The term of office for constitutional court judges is determined by
_____.

34. Federal officers who make arrests, secure jurors, and serve legal papers are

35. Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes once said that the Constitution "means what the judges say it means." He was defining the Supreme Court's power of

36. Judges of the constitutional courts are appointed _____

37. The power of _____ is held by most federal and state courts.