

Hyperbole Examples: Highlight or underline the hyperbole example in each sentence.

1. My backpack weighed a ton with all of my books in it.
2. The homework list was a mile long.
3. The alarm clock could be heard around the world it was so loud.
4. She thought she was the best tennis player on this planet.
5. The class was never ending.

Write one: _____

Personification Examples: Underline the nonhuman thing and the human trait it is given each sentence.

1. The old and tattered house looked depressed.
2. The phone blurted out a loud ring.
3. The fire ran wild and spread really quickly putting the homes in danger.
4. The snow wrapped the trees in white, fluffy blankets.
5. The moon played hide and seek among the clouds.

Write one: _____

Onomatopoeia Examples: Highlight or underline the onomatopoeia(s) example in each sentence.

1. Click the button to take the picture.
2. The pig squealed, the duck quacked, and the turkey gobbled wildly when the thunder boomed.
3. When he jumped into the pool, he made a tremendous splash.
4. The musician slapped his knee along with the beat of the music.
5. The whoosh of the wind and the roar of the ocean always makes the beach feel like home.

Write one: _____

Alliteration Examples: Highlight or underline the alliteration & circle the beginning sound in each word.

1. We like to hike along the hilly paths carrying our heavy packs when it hails outside.
2. He needs to chew his cheese carefully so he doesn't choke.
3. Steve likes to cite evidence from his science books on Saturdays.
4. We finally arrived at the Thurston Theater, thankful that we weren't thoroughly late.
5. Everyone arrived at eight to watch the expert magician entertain the students at Eagle Elementary.

Write one: _____