

Figurative Language Tic Tac Toe
Due: Friday, October 14th

By Friday, October 14th, you must complete three activities in a row. There will be a test on all 25 words Friday, October 14th.

Create a crossword puzzle for all figurative language terms. Include a key.	Create a children's book that teaches children the figurative language terms so they would understand them. Include illustrations that support your explanations.	FREE
FREE	Create a "poster" for each word. Include the word, definition, and example.	Create an advertisement for a new product that utilizes at least 3 types of figurative language to appeal to the audience.
Create a game that includes directions and all materials needed. The game must be useful in learning at least 15 figurative language definitions.	Write the word and definition for each word 3 x each.	Create flash cards for all the figurative language terms and use them to study.