

English 12 Final Exam Review Sheet
2012-2013 School Year

Your final exam will be completely objective. Bring a number 2 pencil. There will not be an essay.

Studying the following concepts should bring you to success:

Characterization

Genre

Metaphor

Symbol

Allusion

Irony

Rhythm

Rhyme

Satire

Sarcasm

Dialogue

Description

Narration

Plot

Mood

Theme

Personification

Rationalization

Divine justice

Identifying the denotative/connotative meaning of vocabulary in context

Critical reading skills: literal, inferential (implied), evaluative meanings

Writer's purpose: entertain, argue, persuade

Author's attitude

Main idea

All of the exam will be comprised of new selections requiring you to practice your critical reading skills. The selections on the exam reflect narrative, persuasive, expository, and informational texts which meet the skills goals of the course and the Common Core Standards.

You have all of the resource materials for studying these concepts in your notes from the various units we've studied throughout the year.