

NANCY CLANCY SECRET ADMIRER

★ NICHOLE KAY

GENRE

The Genre of my book is realistic fiction because all of this could happen in real life.

Hi kids want to here a story?

SETTING

The settings of my book are a few places those are, school, Candy Café, Nancy's House, Bree's House, Annie's House, and a tree house.

SUMMARY

NICHOLE KAY

2/20/14

Chapter one was about the students, in room 3D, who were supposed to count how many times do their hearts beat. Chapter two was about Andy having guitar lessons with Nancy. Chapter three was about Bree and Nancy who had the best babysitter in the world. Chapter four was about Nancy and Bree making Valentine's hearts for their class. Chapter five was about Nancy and Bree making an idea for the new tree house and making pink folders.

SUMMARY

Chapter six was about Nancy and Bree trying to get Annie and Andy to fall in love at the Candy Café. Chapter seven was about Nancy writing a secret admire note to Annie. Chapter eight was about Nancy and Bree almost getting caught putting a note and a rose at Annie's front door. Chapter nine was about them having a very important message for Annie, but they couldn't tell Annie the important message. Chapter ten was about Annie and Andy meeting at the Candy Café. Chapter eleven was about they found out that they may fall in love or may be close friends.

RECOMMENDATION

I like Nancy Clancy Secret Admirer because this book had a lot of funny pictures and the book was so funny that I almost fell out of my chair. The book had a great story plot and kept me wanting to read more. And a funny line because in the book it said, as they reached the porch, a dog inside started yapping like mad.
