

The visual and performing arts department of the Readington Township Public Schools would like to form a new parent/community-based organization to help support and celebrate student success in our arts programs.

Readington Fine and Performing Arts Alliance

Supporting Creative Students and Educational Programs in the Readington Community

OUR MISSION

- To create a meaningful relationship between parents, students, music and art faculty, and the public.
- To provide support to the students, faculty, and all performing and visual arts programs of the Readington Public Schools, K-8.
- To provide assistance and encouragement to further enhance the music and art education of the students.

Please join us for a general interest meeting on Monday, October 17th. Points of discussion will include membership, election of officers and committee chairs, long and short term goals, activities, policies, etc. Any questions regarding this exciting new opportunity can be directed to Mrs. Lori Dribbon, ldribbon@readington.k12.nj.us.
