Continuous Line drawing

Continuous line drawings are made by keeping the pen or pencil in contact with the paper for the entire drawing. The key is to not lift up your pencil the whole time. Can you do this?

Draw a bird without picking up your pencil until you are done!

Value Drawing

Value in art is how light or dark something is on a scale of white to black. It is considered to be one of the most important variables to the success of a drawing or painting,

Draw a plant in your house!
Include different values. (A range of colors from black to white).

Mandala/Symmetry

Symmetry in art is when the elements of a painting or drawing balance each other out. This could be the objects themselves, but it can also relate to colors and other compositional techniques.

Still life

A still life is a work of art depicting mostly inanimate subject matter, typically commonplace objects which are either natural (food, flowers, dead animals, plants, rocks, shells, etc.) or man-made (drinking glasses, books, vases, jewelry, coins, pipes, etc.).

Draw your own still life by what you create with object from home!

Form

Form as an element of art is three-dimensional and encloses space. Like a shape, a form has length and width, but it also has depth. Forms are either geometric or free-form. Can you draw a circle and give it form by looking at the image to the right. Notice how the lines across and down the circle make it look 3D.
