What is a Flexible Spending Account?

A Flexible Spending Account (FSA) is an IRS-approved account that allows you to pay for eligible medical and dependent care expenses on a tax-free basis.

How does the tax savings work? When you enroll in your employer sponsored Flexible Spending Account, your contributions are not subject to Federal, FICA and most state taxes. This means you bring home more money in your paycheck!

Tax Savings Example

Annual Income	$50,000
Anticipated Medical Expenses	$2,500
	Without Plan	With Plan
Federal Income Tax Paid	$12,500	$11,875
State Income Tax Paid	$3,000	$2,850
FICA	$3,825	$3,634
Total Taxes Paid	$19,325	$18,359
Disposable Income	$30,675	$31,640
Annual Tax Savings		$966

The figures above are for illustration purposes only. Actual savings and tax rates may vary.

Who can participate? In order to participate in the plan, you need to meet the eligibility requirements set by your employer. If you or your spouse is reporting contributions to an HSA, generally you will not be eligible to participate in a Medical FSA. Please contact your employer or refer to your plan documentation for more details and eligibility requirements.

How do elections work? Prior to the start of a plan year or when you become eligible, you will make an annual election for medical and/or dependent care expenses separately (as applicable). Elections do not carry over from year to year. Check with your employer about the maximum (and any applicable minimum) amounts you can set aside in a Medical FSA and Dependent Care FSA. Generally, once you have enrolled in the plan, you cannot change your elections during that plan year unless you have a certain qualifying event (e.g. marriage, death, change in employment status, etc.) that may allow a change in your plan year election amounts. More information is also available in your plan documentation.

When can I access FSA funds? Services must be provided during the plan year designated in your plan documentation and you cannot access FSA funds until the service is provided. The IRS allows one exception for orthodontia expenses. Refer to your plan documentation regarding any unused funds at the end of the plan year.

What are eligible medical expenses?

This list is intended to be used as a quick reference of potentially eligible medical expenses and does not guarantee that an expense will be eligible. Please see your plan documents to verify what expenses are reimbursable under your plan. This list is not intended to be an all encompassing list and may be updated from time to time. Eligible expenses for Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) are governed by Section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code. What do I need to know about FSAs?

Medical FSA

A Medical FSA can be used to pay for eligible medical expenses provided to you, your spouse or eligible dependents.

- Upon enrolling in a Medical FSA, you have access to your full plan year election amount.
- The tax-free amount you can set aside in a Medical FSA per plan year can be found in your Plan Highlights. Your Plan Highlights also contain other specific information about your employer sponsored plan.
- Expenses must be primarily to prevent, treat, diagnose or mitigate a physical or mental defect or illness. The eligibility of an expense is governed by the IRS. Common eligible expenses include:
 - Co-payments, co-insurance and deductible expenses
 - Dental care (e.g. exams, fillings, crowns)
 - Vision care, eyeglasses, contact lenses
 - Chiropractic care
 - Prescription drugs and certain over-the-counter medical items
- Expenses cannot be for personal care, cosmetic or general health purposes.
- Some expenses are only eligible if certified by a licensed medical provider as medically necessary.
- Expenses cannot be reimbursed from any other source (e.g. insurance).
- Refer to your Plan Highlights for details regarding how unused Medical FSA funds are treated.
- While you can use the Medical FSA for medical expenses for a spouse or dependent, you cannot use Medical FSA funds for dependent care expenses (e.g. child care) and vice-versa.

Dependent Care FSA

A Dependent Care FSA can be used to reimburse dependent care expenses (e.g. child care) for a qualified person. These expenses enable you to be gainfully employed and, if married, enable your spouse to be gainfully employed, look for work or attend school full-time.

- The qualified person must spend at least 8 hours per day in your home and is one of the following:
 - Dependent child under the age of 13 and for whom you can claim a tax exemption.
 - Spouse or dependent who is physically or mentally incapable of self-care, lives with you for more than half of the year, and for whom you can claim a tax exemption.
- The tax-free amount you can set aside per calendar year in a Dependent Care FSA can be found in your Plan Highlights.
- Common eligible expenses, include:
 - Before/after school care
 - Child Care / in-home dependent care
 - Day care facility
 - Nursery school
 - Adult care
- Services provided for education, overnight camps or services provided by the child's parent or other dependent for income tax purposes are not eligible expenses.
- The amount available for reimbursement of dependent care expenses is limited to the cash balance in your Dependent Care FSA.
- Refer to your Plan Highlights for details regarding how unused Dependent Care FSA funds are treated.
- You cannot claim a federal tax credit for any expenses reimbursed through a Dependent Care FSA. Consult a tax professional to determine if it would be more to your advantage to elect a Dependent Care FSA or to use the federal tax credit.

Use the FSA Expense & Tax Savings Estimate Worksheet included in the booklet to help you estimate how much you should elect.

How do I access my FSA?

Use the Beniversal Card (if offered)

The Beniversal Prepaid MasterCard can be used at qualified merchants providing medical products and services, such as: doctors, dentists, medical labs, hospitals, medical supply stores, vision centers and certain drugstores and retail merchants. (A list of drugstores and retail merchants is available at www.BenefitResource.com).

When using your card, always save your itemized receipts. With an FSA, the IRS requires Benefit Resource to verify that 100% of transactions are for eligible expenses. Since some qualified merchants also offer services/items that are not eligible, Benefit Resource may contact you requesting additional documentation on a transaction.

Requested receipts and documentation for card transactions can be submitted online at www.BenefitResource.com, through the BRiMobile app or by fax/mail. Instructions will be provided in the request.

Submit a Claim

When not using the Beniversal Card or for Dependent Care expenses, you can submit a claim with your itemized receipt or supporting documentation. Claims can be submitted:

If you have enrolled in a Medical FSA for the first time and the Beniversal Card is offered, it will arrive in a plain white envelope from Benefit Resource. Once you receive your card, you will need to activate it by calling the number on the activation sticker. If you already have a Beniversal Card, you can continue to use the card through the expiration date.
