

The background is a gradient from deep red at the top to dark blue at the bottom. It features several faint, white, concentric circular patterns. Some of these circles have degree markings along their perimeters, with numbers like 150, 160, 170, 180, 190, 200, 210, 220, 230, 240, 250, and 260 visible. There are also dashed lines and arrows indicating movement or flow within these circular structures.

FORESHADOWING & FLASHBACK

Foreshadowing

The author's use of clues to hint at what might happen later in a story.

HELPS TO BUILD SUSPENSE

what makes you
sit on the edge of your seat?

FORESHADOWING THROUGH...

- Dialogue
- Description
- Attitudes of characters
- Reactions of characters

Flashback

A scene that interrupts a story to describe an earlier event.

SHOWS SOMETHING IMPORTANT
ABOUT A CHARACTER'S PAST.

FLASHBACKS MIGHT BE.....

- Memories
- Dreams
- Stories of the past told by characters
- An interruption by the author

The school day began just like every other school day. Little did Mrs. Jones know that this would be her last day at school for a long while.

Foreshadowing

Flashback

As he worked, Jim thought back to the time he helped his father paint the house.

Foreshadowing

Flashback

Kate's grandmother said, "That's nothing! When I was a little girl, I walked seven miles to school each day!"

Foreshadowing

Flashback

Her fairy godmother told Cinderella that going to the ball might change her life.

Foreshadowing

Flashback

The road was narrow, steep, and twisting. It was an absolute nightmare to navigate.

Foreshadowing

Flashback

I remember my first time in an airplane as if it was yesterday. I was six-years-old and terrified.

Foreshadowing

Flashback

“Rest assured,” the captain told the crew. “This ship is invincible.”

Foreshadowing

Flashback