Applications are evaluated blindly
(without name and contact info)

A yellow rectangular graphic with the title "Evaluation & Selection" in large, bold, dark green font. Below the title, there are two columns of text in a smaller, dark green font. The left column describes the evaluation process, and the right column describes the selection process.

Evaluation & Selection

Evaluators are given the scholarship criteria for each scholarship and asked to blindly (without reference to personal information) evaluate each application to determine the most qualified applicant for each specific scholarship based on the selection criteria.

Selections are made by one of two committees: the HCCF Scholarship committee or a School Selection committee. These committees recommend recipients to the HCCF Board of Directors for approval.

3 Reasons to Complete the FAFSA

- 1. To qualify for other kinds of scholarships and grants. Some financial aid programs require a FAFSA even though they award aid without regard to family income.
- 2. To get cheap, forgivable federal loans. The FAFSA automatically qualifies the student for low-interest and forgivable federal student loans.
- 3. To gain an admissions edge. In some cases, filing a FAFSA can actually help a student gain admission to a college.

Financial Need-Based Scholarships

- Applicants that apply for need-based scholarships are required to complete the FAFSA before they apply.
- Other Financial Questions are listed on Financial Worksheet.

Get Ready...

- Record volunteer work
- Create list of activities throughout high school years
- Identify recommenders
- Create permanent email address
- Choose top 3 colleges
- Prepare essays
- File your FAFSA

Preparing to Apply for Scholarships:

- ➔ Keep track of volunteer work, including place/organization, specific work done and hours worked. It is also a good idea to know the name of the person supervising the volunteer work. Many HCCF scholarships are based on your contribution to the community.
- ➔ Create a list of all the clubs and extracurricular activities you have participated in by the year that you were in them during high school, along with the leaders or advisors. These are activities that are affiliated with your high school, as well as those that you belong to outside your high school.
- ➔ Identify two or three good people to submit reference letters. At least one should be a teacher and none should be relatives. Employers, club leaders, pastors, nonprofit operators where you volunteer are all possibilities. They should be aware that they will be getting a request for a letter of recommendation. NOTIFY THEM EARLY IN THE APPLICATION PROCESS SO THAT THEY HAVE TIME TO RESPOND.
- ➔ Create or use an email address not associated with your high school for the application process. Be sure to check this email address often after applications are submitted. You may be asked to participate in an interview process and will be notified by email. The scholarships will follow you to college and sometimes beyond.
- ➔ Know your top three college choices. Do research this summer if you are not yet sure of your college choices. Some scholarships are only awarded to students if they are going to a college in the state of Indiana. Others are for specific colleges. Study the Guidebook that you will receive in October to determine what scholarships you will be eligible for based on your college choice.
- ➔ Write a basic essay specific to your intended career, if you know what it is. In the essay address:
 - ✦ Why the career interests you
 - ✦ How you are currently preparing for it (high school classes, vocational program, job, internships, volunteer experiences, etc.)
 - ✦ How your college or program choice will help you reach your goal
 - ✦ What you expect to be doing in this career in ten years.
 - ✦ You will need to tweak this to fit specific scholarship requirements, but if you have this already created, modifying it will be a simple task.
- ➔ File your FAFSA information as early as possible after October 1. Collect other Financial Need information as described on the Financial Need Information Form.

You will see due date listed at the top of this form.

Please be aware that you will not be able to submit your Application after the deadline.

The screenshot shows the top of a web form. On the left, there is a tab labeled 'Application' with a document icon. To its right, there are two buttons: 'Application Packet' and 'Question List', both with document icons. Below these, a blue-bordered box contains two informational messages, each preceded by an 'i' icon in a circle. The first message states 'Due on 02/01/2020 05:00 PM MST.' and the second states 'Fields with an asterisk (*) are required.' An orange arrow points to the first message.

Fill out the Application form. Any questions with an asterisk next to them are required.

Questions with character limits will show an error message if your response is over the limit. You will need to shorten your response to fit within the limit before you can submit your Application.

File upload questions will only accept one file per question, and there will be a file MiB limit noted. If you upload a file that's too large or an unaccepted file type, a warning will appear, and your file will not be saved.

The Application may contain one or more sections to be completed by another person, for example someone who will write you a letter of recommendation, or your guidance counselor who will provide your 7th Semester GPA

You'll see instructions on the Application if this is the case.

✓ Letter of Recommendation

Third Party Email*

The person writing your recommendation should not be a family member. Please enter the email address for this person, then click Compose Email and request the recommendation. The system will then send them further instructions.

Compose Email

After typing in the email address for the person who will complete that section for you, click Compose Email.

In your email, let them know what you need, and include any other information as instructed on the Application.

The system will then send them another email with a link to complete the questions in that section.

The system will autosave your work on the Application after every 100 characters you type or when you click into the next question.

You can also click Save if you need to leave the site before you're done.

When you return to the site, click Edit Application from your dashboard to return to the form.
