Camille Rose Garcia was born in 1970 in Los Angeles, California.

The child of a Mexican activist filmmaker father and a muralist/painter mother, she apprenticed at age 14 working on murals with her mother.

While growing up in the generic suburbs of Orange County, visiting Disneyland and going to punk shows with the other disenchanting youth of that era.

Mixed media on paper in vintage frame, 17 x 11 1/4 inches

Garcia's layered, broken narrative paintings of wasteland fairy tales are influenced by William Burroughs' cut-up writings, surrealist film, vintage Disney and Fleischer cartoons.

Acting as critical commentaries on the failures of capitalist utopias, blending nostalgic pop culture references with a satirical slant on modern society.
