

Georgia O'Keeffe, Landscape Artist

Her Life

- Georgia was born in 1887 on a farm in Wisconsin.
- She knew at the age of 12 she wanted to be an artist.
- She found beauty in things like flowers, mountains and sometimes animal skulls.

Her Work

- She developed her own unique style of art, a combination of abstract and realistic.
- She was inspired by desert landscapes and flowers.
- She traveled around the desert, drawing and painting.
- She used her car as a mobile art studio.

Read Aloud: Through Georgia's Eyes by
Rachel Rodriguez, Illustrated by Julie Paschkis.

It's pretty cool that Georgie used her car as a mobile art studio and traveled to her favorite places to paint and draw.

Have you ever visited a place that took your breath away?

What's a place that you visited that made you stop and admire the beauty?

Respond on Schoology with a typed response or record yourself speaking. You can also share a picture of the place.
Have fun!

One of the places I visited that took my breath away was The Japanese Tea Garden here in town. I love the plants surrounding the koi ponds. It's such a beautiful place and the best part, its free!

