

American Government

CHAPTER 3 REVIEW

NAME _____

Terms:

Constitution	Bicameral	Confederation	Ratify
Great Compromise	3/5's Compromise	Electoral College	Constitutional Convention
Federalists	Federalism	Anti – Federalists	Legislative Branch
Preamble	Executive Branch	Judicial Branch	Amendment
Rule of Law	Popular Sovereignty	Separation of Powers	Checks and Balances
Expressed Powers	Reserved Powers	Concurrent Powers

Know the accomplishments of the Confederation Congress

Know the characteristics of the Articles of Confederation and the weaknesses

Know who the main delegates to the convention were, who didn't attend and why, and the key decisions they made at the very start of the convention

Know what the Virginia and New Jersey plans were and who proposed them

Know what the Great or Connecticut Compromise was and who proposed it

Know the 3/5's Compromise and the other compromises and what problems they resolved

Know the arguments of the Federalists and the Anti-Federalists and how the Constitution was ratified

Know the different articles of the Constitution and what they are about

Know the two ways an amendment can be proposed and the two ways an amendment can be ratified and which ones have been used and for what amendments

Know what the Necessary and Proper Clause and Supremacy Clause are and why they are important

Know and be able to explain the five major principles of government contained in the Constitution

Know the three types of power and the chart on page 89