

It's almost Halloween—let's talk about HAIR!

Art by Lovenstein, Remy, & Davidson

Hair helps to make us who we are!

Artists can use hair to tell us about who
the person is and what they are thinking...

Unknown
artist

Artists can use hair to surprise us!

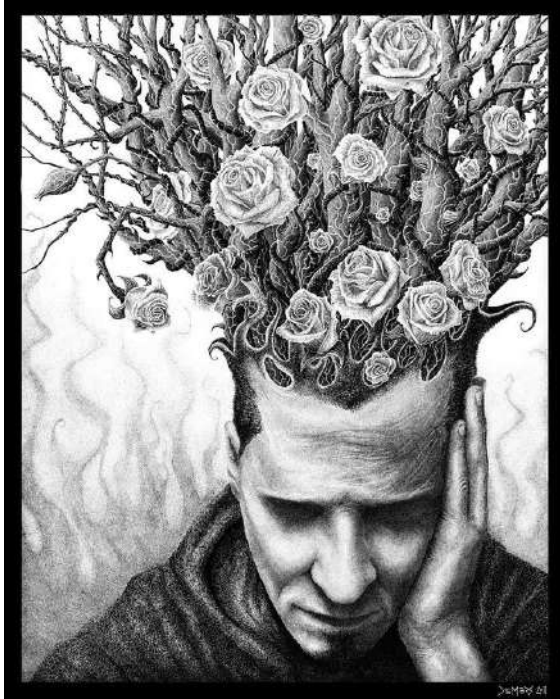

Flora (1588)
&
Vetumnus (1591) by Giuseppe
Arcimboldo

Artists can use hair as elements of design (line/shape)

By Iaian Macarthur

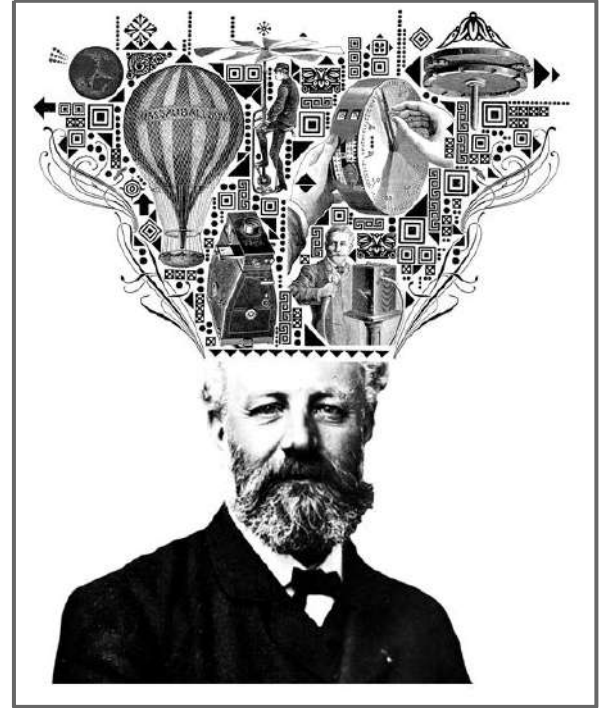

Artists can create hair using black & white contrast

Unknown artist

Iaian Macarthur

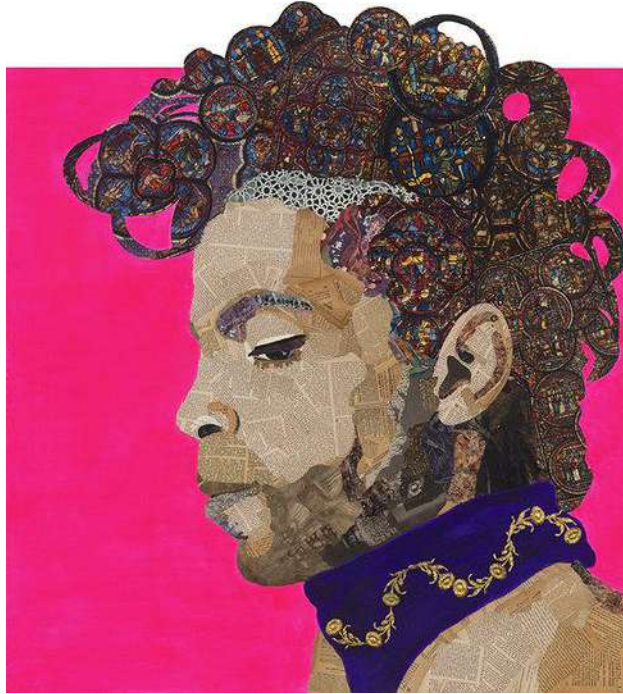

Lorenzo Petrantonio

Artists can create hair & pattern using collage

“Love” by Brenda Bogart

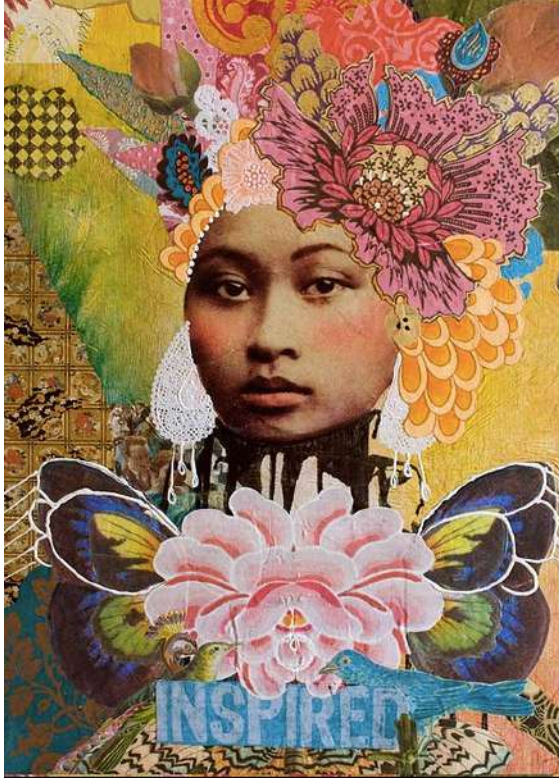

“Pink+Prince” by Brenda Bogart

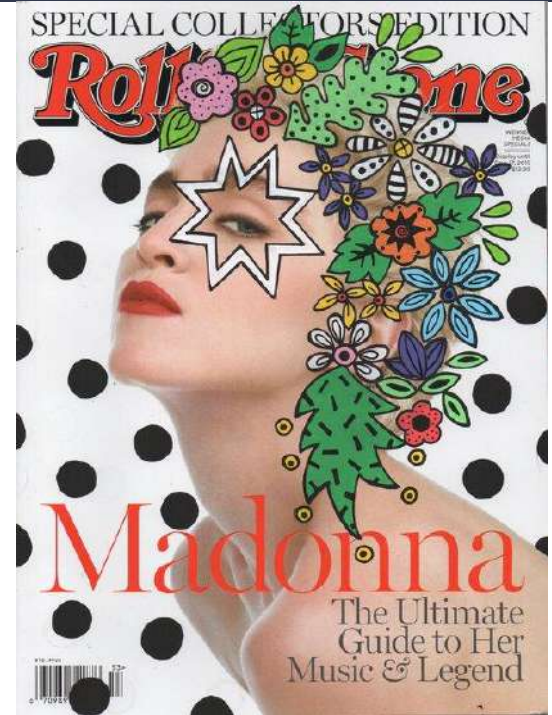

“Faithfulness” by B. Bogart

Collage/mixed media by Andrea Matus

Artists can alter photos

Altered magazine covers by Ana Strumpf

Hair is a form of self-expression!

Avant garde hair by wsalohnawaii.com

Hairstyle by Thirsty Roots

Hairstyles by Dieudonne
Senato

The Project: choose one

- Draw or cut out a face and add lines, pictures, and shapes to create a wild hairdo
- Draw or paint to alter a picture in a magazine
- Use collage to create a unique hairdo
- Make a creative hairdo out of your own hair, or a family member's hair

Kinds of hair to consider

From artscrackers.com

Beehive
Braids
Curls
Afro Pompadour
Fade
Mohawk
Bun
Pony/Pigtails
Dreadlocks
Twists
Beards
Moustache
Sideburns

By Charlie Odom