Important Reminders and Disclaimer:

When applying for scholarships, remember:

- Read and follow all instructions given, your failure to do so could disqualify you from being considered for the scholarship.
- Use a black ink pen when completing a hard copy application, unless you are instructed to type your responses or to do otherwise.
- Allow yourself plenty of time to complete and gather all applications materials and submit all applications by the application deadline.
- Allow references enough time to complete paperwork for you if needed. Do not wait until the last minute to ask others to provide information or complete forms that you need in order to meet your deadline.
(You should allow the person that you ask for a recommendation, etc., at least fifteen school days (three school weeks) to complete the task; plan accordingly.)
