

Hayfield Blue & Gold Junior Choir

Handbook

2019-2020

Blue & Gold Choir Students and Parents,

Hello and welcome to Junior Choir. I'm looking forward to another year as the choral director at Hayfield High School. I am excited each of you has decided to be involved in choir!

This handbook's purpose is to outline this year's schedule, expectations, class rules, grading policies, and more. Please familiarize yourself with the handbook as it is a great place to refer back to throughout the year and contains a great deal of information.

After reading through the handbook, please sign the letter/schedule sheet and hand back in during class time. The handbook is available on my classroom website and Moodle. If there are any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me through phone, email, or just stop in the choir room.

I've very excited for all that this year has in store for the Hayfield choir program and all that we will accomplish!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Megan Lynch

HHS Junior High Expectations (same in all junior high classes)

1. Unless directed otherwise, all student work will be written in complete sentences (starts with a capital letter, uses punctuation, includes at least a noun and verb in a complete thought)

Consequence: Students will receive half credit for correct answers not written in complete sentences

2. Students will listen the first time information is given.

Consequence: Teachers will repeat/rephrase information for understanding, but not for poor listening.

3. Students will not interrupt others' discussion or instruction. Students will raise their hands and wait patiently to be called on.

Consequence: Students will receive classroom detention to be served at the teacher's discretion.

3. Students will be prepared for each class by bringing a charged laptop, writing utensil, notebook, assignment, folder, agenda, and all other necessary classroom materials.

Consequence: Students will receive classroom detention to be served at the teacher's discretion.

Concerts

Concerts are a major part of your summative assessment grade. All concerts bolded in the below schedule are graded and require attendance. Make sure to mark these performances on your family calendar or post them on the fridge. Concert expectations and grading rubric will be given and explained before each concert.

Excused absences: Excused absences include personal illness, family emergency, and unavoidable family trips (made before the beginning of school year). These absences may be made up by an alternative assignment regarding the concert unit. If an excused absence does occur, an email or phone call must be provided to Mrs. Lynch by a parent/guardian. Remember work or lack of transportation are not considered an excused absence. Make sure to plan ahead.

Unexcused absences: An unexcused absence are absences not verified from a parent or guardian. These absences will be made up with an alternative concert assignment and an individual performance of you part of the concert music.

Concert Dress: Choir members should wear appropriate dress clothes for performances. It's important to look our best! All outfits must follow the school dress code.

Girls- dress pants/skirt/dress, dress shirt and dress shoes

Boys- Dress pants, dress shirts and dress shoes.
