Educatus International is seeking host and welcome families in the Frankfort & Lawrenceburg areas for August 2013. Hosting a student is an exciting opportunity to make a difference globally, learn new cultures, and help a student get an education here in the US. We are in need of local families to host students from all over the world to attend high school locally. We offer a monthly stipend to host families and now there's an extra $300 signing bonus for becoming a host family. If you are not able to host you can also earn $100 by referring a family who hosts a student.

A host family is responsible for room and board, and a caring environment for their student. A monthly stipend is provided to help offset the expenses of having a student in the home. Host families are responsible for providing all of the students meals while they are in the home and if they choose to bring a sack lunch to school. Students will be responsible for lunches purchased at school.

Your student will also be responsible for his/her expenses outside of the home. This includes things like clothes, entertainment, (i.e. movies, meals at a restaurant, presents, prom expenses and attire, yearbooks, etc.) Please contact us ASAP if you, or anyone you know, is interested in hosting now or in the future. Thank you!
