Researching Life in the Past

How do we know what
Ancient Egypt was like?

Directions: As a class or in groups, you can research more about how school or home-life used to be. Use the area below to help you record what you learn. In each box, write important words or draw pictures of your discoveries.

Draw pictures or write important words that tell about past life.

The form consists of four large, empty, irregular shapes arranged in a 2x2 grid. Each shape is designed for drawing or writing. The top-left shape is a cloud-like outline. The top-right shape is a rectangular box with a decorative, dotted border. The bottom-left shape is a rounded rectangle with a thick black border. The bottom-right shape is a cloud-like outline with a thick black border. All shapes are white with black outlines and are set against a white background.
