

Honors Art III Final Exam Study Guide:

Part I:

Choose your most successful artwork this semester and write an artist's statement incorporating the following information:

*4 step Formal Critique:

*Aesthetic Philosophy that guided your work

*Planning

*Process

*What you Learned: techniques, media, etc

*What you wanted to achieve

*Successful components

*Unsuccessful components

Part II:

Art History

*study all art history warm-ups! Be sure to understand the defining characteristics of each area, and understand the similarities and differences between sequential timeline. Focus upon 2 sequential time periods and from name at least one defining artist, biographical info, their style characteristics, impact on art movement and at least one of their artworks. You will compare/contrast the two periods and artists in essay format.

Honors Art III Final Exam Study Guide:

Part I:

Choose your most successful artwork this semester and write an artist's statement incorporating the following information:

*4 step Formal Critique:

*Aesthetic Philosophy that guided your work

*Planning

*Process

*What you Learned: techniques, media, etc

*What you wanted to achieve

*Successful components

*Unsuccessful components

Part II:

Art History

*study all art history warm-ups! Be sure to understand the defining characteristics of each area, and understand the similarities and differences between sequential timeline. Focus upon 2 sequential time periods and from name at least one defining artist, biographical info, their style characteristics, impact on art movement and at least one of their artworks. You will compare/contrast the two periods and artists in essay format.

