

Honors English 9 – Summer Reading Assignment Journal Scoring Rubric

	20-18	17-16	15-14	13-0
Completion of journal assignments Introduction – 1 Book I – 19 Book II – 15 Book III – 4 Book IV – 4 Book V – 3 Total # of Entries – 46	The student completed between 42-46 journal entries.	The student completed between 37-41 journal entries	The student completed between 32-36 journal entries.	The student completed 31 or fewer journal entries.
Journal responses show an understanding of the story	The journal responses demonstrate a complete understanding of the story, its characters, its plot, and its themes.	The journal responses demonstrate an understanding of most of the story, its characters, its plot, and its themes.	The journal responses demonstrate a limited understanding of the story, its characters, its plot, and its themes.	The journal responses demonstrate a lack of understanding of the story, its characters, its plot, and its themes.
Follows directions Each entry includes one student-created summary, at least one question, and at least one comment. Each book, chapter, summary, question, and comment is clearly labeled.	All directions were followed, and the student completed 42-46 of the journal entries correctly.	All directions were followed, and the student completed 37-41 of the journal entries correctly.	All directions were followed, and the student completed 32-36 of the journal entries correctly.	31 or fewer journal entries were completed correctly, or a greater number of journals was completed without following the directions.
Organization	The content of each entry is organized in a logical and sophisticated manner. All entries are presented in order.	The content of each entry is organized in a logical manner. All entries are presented in order.	The content of each entry is moderately disorganized. Some of the entries are out of order.	The content of each entry is severely disorganized and/or the entries do not appear in the correct order.
Entries are neat and legible	All of the entries are neat and legible.	Most of the entries are neat and legible.	More than 25% of the entries are neither not neat nor legible.	Most or all of the entries are neither neat nor legible.

_____/100 points