Mr. Howard Johnson grew up in Ashland, WI and attended Ashland High School. He was a member of the band under director, Ted Mesang, and went on to play clarinet professionally with the Ringling Bros. Circus and then with the Indianapolis Symphony. Mr. Johnson passed away in May, 1995. He established this scholarship with the Ashland Foundation to help others further their musical education. He also has the Howard K. Johnson Foundation with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra that is continuing to give others musical opportunities.

The amount of this scholarship will vary with the stock market. It will be awarded in two installments, one at the beginning of your first year and one at the beginning of your second year if you are still majoring in music.

Please attach an essay (max. 500 words) to tell us what your goals are musically and why you think you should have this scholarship.

Please list your musical accomplishments throughout High School. Attach any related materials.
