

Humans and the Environment

Responsible citizenship requires that we understand how humans interact with the environment. You will either propose a solution to a current environmental issue, or you will analyze a historical situation in terms of the environment and propose a reasonable alternative.

Your Task

In a cohesive paper or presentation, you will:

- ☐ Analyze a current or historical environmental issue by providing background information that analyzes the development of the issue.
- ☐ State a claim about an environmental issue.
- ☐ Provide reasons for your claim, supported by evidence, including:
  - A possible solution or an alternative solution (historical).
  - An analysis of benefits and/or costs of two or more stakeholders' uses of the environment.
- ☐ Cite specific textual evidence from at least three credible sources that provide relevant information.
