

College and Career Preparation: I AM READY!

Students at Hobart High School choose Career Pathways for experiential learning to get ready for college and careers.

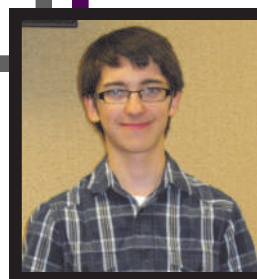

I am Kaitlyn Wilfong, and I am in the School of Business Services and Informational Technology. I am a member of DECA, learning sports entertainment marketing, an intern at the administration building, and assist in running the Brickie Credit Union in order to prepare me for a career in business and marketing. I am currently receiving dual credit from Purdue North Central for my English Composition class. I plan on attending Purdue University Calumet in the fall, and I AM READY!

I am Max Gallivan, and I am in the School of Health and Natural Sciences. I am currently participating in advanced biology labs, patient studies, and conducting research to prepare me for a career in the medical field. I like math, science, government, theater, and being with friends. I am currently taking dual credit biomedical courses and will earn college credit through IUPUI. I plan to attend college next fall, and I AM READY!

I am Caylee Stahl, and I am in the School of Human Services. I am learning how children grow, develop, and learn, which is preparing me for a career in Elementary Education. I love learning about each child and watching them excel in their education. I will be receiving six college credits for participating in this program. I plan on attending Taylor University or Purdue University, and I AM READY!

I am Chad Brooks, and I am in the School of Engineering and Industrial Technology. I am learning computer design and architecture in my Project Lead The Way Engineering courses. Along with PLTW classes, I have also taken Advanced Placement classes to prepare me for college. I plan to attend college in the fall to pursue a degree in architecture, and I AM READY!

I am Cierra Dawn Payton, and I am in the School of Communication and Fine Arts. I am taking part in numerous plays and shows in theatre as well as choir, in order to prepare me for a career in musical theatre work. I enjoy spending time on stage and working on my vocal skills. I am currently receiving dual credit from Purdue North Central for my Senior Composition class. I plan to attend Arizona State University in the fall to major in theatre with a minor in music. I AM READY!
