

TEACHING METHODS

It is the desire of the Board that the best available strategies and methods for bringing about learning be utilized in the district's schools. The instructional staff is expected to keep abreast of new and more promising instructional ideas and practices developed in schools throughout the nation and to apply those which apparently have the potential for improving the learning program in the district's schools. Strategies and methods shall be focused on the personalization of learning with the desired curriculum outcomes.

Proposed: 08/28/00
Adopted: 10/02/00