IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING CELL PHONES & OTHER COMMUNICATION DEVICES

- A new State Education Department regulation prohibits students from bringing any communications device, including a cell phone, into an exam or during any breaks (such as a restroom visit). Such devices include but are not limited to:
  - Cell phones
  - Blackberry devices and other PDAs
  - iPods and MP3 players
  - iPads, tablets, and other eReaders
  - Laptops, notebooks, or any other personal computing devices
  - Cameras or other photographic equipment
  - Headphones, headsets, or in-ear headphones such as earbuds, and
  - Any other device capable of recording audio, photographic or video content, or capable of viewing or playing back such content
- Students who are found to be in possession of a cell phone during a Regents exam will have their exam invalidated.
- We are recommending that students leave their cell phones home on the days they are taking Regents exams.
- If that is not possible, they should lock them in their cars, if they have one.
