Inside Out and Back Again: Reading Check-Up Questions PART II

For each question, you must answer each part and explain each idea. Use text-based evidence as much as you can. You MUST write a minimum of 5 sentences per answer.

1. Why do you think Ha loves papaya so much? What might the fruit represent for her? How is it the same as what the chick means to Brother Khoi? How is this different?
2. On the ship, Ha touches the sailor's hairy arm and Mother slaps her hand away(p. 95). Why does Ha take a hair? What does this last stanza from "Golden Fuzz" reveal about Ha?

I roll my fuzzy souvenir
Between my thumb and finger
And can't help
But smile.

3. Reread ""Tent City" (p. 96-97) , "Life in Waiting" (p. 98-99) and Nuoc Nam (p. 100-101) and complete these two lists with at least 5 examples. Paraphrase details from the book into your own words. For each, briefly tell why.
