

Name

Date

English 6

Ms. Lund

Inside Out and Back Again* by Thanhha Lai

This novel told in verse contains many rich examples of literary devices. While reading, record AT LEAST 5 MORE EXAMPLES of poetic devices and figurative language that you particularly enjoy as you read the text. Here are some examples of LITERARY DEVICES to identify and analyze.

QUOTE/EXAMPLE of LITERARY DEVICE	TYPE of DEVICE	INTEPRETATION
o An old, angry knot expanded in my throat (p2) o A seed like a fish eye, slippery shiny black (p8)
o Peacock tails at the corner of his eyes (p13)
o Soft as a yam gliding down (p21)
o Bridge shaped like a crescent moon (p32)
o Like magic a crepe forms (p34)

o Tears of an ugly fish (p36)
o Her brows twist like laundry being wrung dry (p37)
o Bombs explode like thunder (p48)
o Gaunt like bark (p54)
o Black seeds spill like clusters of eyes, wet and crying (p60) o Uncle Son flares elbows into wings...our family sticks together like wet pages (p61) o Crawling on like raging ants from a disrupted nest (p63) o Bombs pierce the sky (p66)
o Red and green flares explode like fireworks (p66)

QUOTE/EXAMPLE of Literary Device	Type of Device	Interpretation