2024-2025 Media Release

Video/Audio/Photography/Display and Use of Student Work Release

During the 2024-2025 school year video/audio recordings and/or photographs are made of various school activities and classes using district owned and/or district approved equipment. Individual students or small groups of students may be featured in interviews, on-camera discussions, performances, presentations, etc. Recordings and/or photographs may be posted to District Social Media, cablecast over GTV, YouTube, and other cable or broadcast channels. Recordings and photographs may also be displayed and/or streamed on District and/or school websites, and in District/school print or electronic publications.

Student produced work (print and/or recordings) may be used by the District in the course of instruction, accreditation, presentation, and action research. Additionally, photographs, student artwork, projects or performances may be displayed or shared. The New Boston School District may reproduce, revise, edit and copyright the material in whole or in part. The District will notify parents/guardians in those instances when special education programs are involved.

All use of Social Media will conform with the New Boston School District's Terms of Use for Social Media. The New Boston School District's Terms of Use for Social Media can be found at:

<http://www.goffstown.k12.nh.us/Index.php/policies>. The New Boston School District has no control over non-district media sources and their use of print and/or recordings.
