January Student of the Month

Adalynn

Kindergarten

Ms. Hood

Adalynn is our student of the month for January! Adalynn has made so much progress this year in both reading and math. She comes to school everyday with a smile and eagerness to learn. Adalynn is a great role model. She is great at staying focused during lessons and doing her best on all assignments. She has many friends and loves to help others. She is silly, kind, responsible, artistic, and fun. Adalynn's favorite parts of the day are math and P.E. She wants to be a teacher when she grows up. I'm so proud of you Adalynn! Keep up the hard work.

January Student of the Month

Zayden

Kindergarten

Mrs. Oxenford

Zayden is our January Student of the Month. I chose Zayden because he is very patient and kind to his friends. Zayden loves school and when I asked him what his favorite thing to do at school is, he said, "I like everything at school!" Zayden is a very hard worker and he tries his best to complete all his work! Way to go Zayden! You rock Kindergarten!

January Student of the Month

Opal

1st Grade

Ms. Holzgang

The first-grade student of the month is Opal! I am so proud of how hard Opal has worked to turn her year around and grow. She continues to try her personal best every day and works hard to grow personally and academically. Opal always participates in class activities to the best of her abilities and shines brightly well doing them. I am so proud of all of Opal's achievements this year! Keep up the great work!

January Student of the Month

Natalie

1st /2nd Grade

Mrs. Skenzick

Natalie is the student of the month for room 6! We've been practicing and recognizing patience this month, and Natalie sets such a great example of how to be patient during our school day. I especially notice this when others are sharing, and she listens with kindness. She also shows patience when we're waiting to get everyone's attention before moving on. I love seeing Natalie's curiosity and love of learning each day. I know she's going to do great things. You're a super leader in our classroom, Natalie!

Mrs. Skenzick

January Student of the Month

Cohen

2nd Grade

Mr. Franklin

Cohen has had a really great school year. He is extremely kind to everyone that he meets. With this month's focus on patience, it just makes sense that Cohen would be our student of the month. He is never pushy and always waits his turn. On top of all of that, he is incredibly hard working and does his best in every situation. Amazing job, Cohen! You Rock!

January Student of the Month

Paige

3rd grade

Mrs. Johnson

Paige is our student of the month for January! Paige is a hardworking, thoughtful student. She is always focused and ready to learn. Paige is patient and kind with all of her classmates and her teacher. She makes our class a better place to be. Paige is creative and enjoys coloring and making books. We are so glad that Paige is in our class!

January Student of the Month

Liam

3rd

Mrs Varozza

Our student of the month is Liam. Liam has worked very hard on being a 3rd grader this year! He is a talented writer, a caring individual, and someone who has been working very hard to meet our high expectations! Liam also demonstrates patience often. He is very kind about giving reminders to Mrs. Varozza, and is able to do so during the right times. Excellent job, Liam! Keep up the great work!

January Student of the Month

Eva

3rd Grade

Miss Reynolds

Eva is Room 7's Student of the Month! Eva is always kind and respectful to all. She is patient and understanding with her classmates and is always willing to help. Eva works hard and stays on task whether she is working independently or with others. She also has the best attitude! She is a positive and enthusiastic presence in our classroom, no matter what we're doing. She encourages others to do their best and leads by example. We love having Eva in our class! Way to go, Eva!

January Student of the Month

Kolbi

4th Grade

Ms. Thom

WOW! Kolbi is such an amazing student in the 4th grade. She is a kind friend to all, she works extremely hard, and not only does she do well in school, she's an all star athlete! I see Kolbi push herself to new heights every single day! Keep it up Kolbi!!!!

~Ms. Thom

January Student of the Month

Lucy

4th Grade

Ms. Hutton

Congratulations to Lucy McCoy, my January Student of the Month! This month we're focusing on the students with exceptional patience and I immediately thought of Lucy. Lucy just goes with the flow of things. Even when the energy in the classroom gets pretty high, Lucy keeps it cool. I don't think I've ever seen her frustrated or upset with another student. Even more, Lucy is patient with herself! She doesn't crack under pressure. She works hard, stays focused, and takes the time she needs to do her best! We are so lucky to have someone so kind and easy-going in our midst! Thanks Lucy for setting an example for all of us!

January Student of the Month

Chase

5th Grade

Ms. Houghtaling

Chase is kind, thoughtful, helpful, but most importantly so patient. He is patient with everyone around him and that is apparent through his actions. He always tries to do the right thing and he is always looking out for other even when he doesn't have to. Chase is a pure example of what it means to be patient and I am so lucky to have someone like him in my class! Congratulations Chase!

January Student of the Month

Iyan

5th Grade

Mrs. Nienhaus

Iyan is the student of the month for Mrs. Nienhaus's class. Iyan has shown patience and perseverance this month in a few different ways. Iyan has been working on waiting patiently and responding to suggestions in a calm manner. Iyan has done a great job of working hard, taking breaks when he needs it, and maintaining a calm, cool, and collected demeanor. Iyan is also has a wealth of knowledge that he enjoys sharing with the class. Iyan is a great friend, a diligent worker, and has a great sense of humor. Keep up the amazing progress, Iyan!!

~Mrs. Nienhaus

January Student of the Month

Clay

Bridges

Mrs. Kenyon

Clay has been nominated for the student of the month of January! He is kind, thoughtful, helpful, but most importantly, patient. He has also worked on being flexible and accepting when things do not go the way he wanted them to. Clay always tries to do the right thing and he is very helpful to his classmates! Congratulations Clay! Keep up the good work! We love having you in class!

~Mrs. Kenyon

January Student of the Month

Kya
PE
Mrs. Herbert

Congratulations to Kya in 3rd grade for being our PE student of the month. Kya does a great job in PE no matter what skill we are working on. She shows interest with any game we play, and patience with any partner or team she works with. Her favorite PE game so far is volleyball and Swamp Ball. At home Kya likes to practice dancing, tumbling, and riding bikes when it is nice outside. She wishes we could do gymnastics in PE. Her favorite healthy snack is “ants on a log” and seaweed. Kya’s health tip for everyone is to eat your vegetables everyday! I am proud of you Kya!
