Notes:

We hope your child has enjoyed the 2022 A3 Summer Camp at John Hopkins. We have enjoyed working with them this summer! Thank you again for entrusting us with them.

The students are learning about story retelling, and they are multiplying numbers.

Students completed an activity on story retelling in their writing class. They learned about Point of View in their reading class.

The students are engaging in many activities such as Point of View, Rounding to the Nearest 10, and Summarizing Details in Text.

John Hopkins enjoyed a day at the MS Museum Civil Rights Museum.

Students are completing an opinion writing about the story they watched on the SmartBoard.
