

Foreman:

A small, petty man who is impressed with the authority he has and handles himself quite formally. Not overly bright, but dogged.

Juror # 2

He is a meek, hesitant man who finds it difficult to maintain any opinions of his own. He is easily swayed and usually adopts the opinion of the last person to whom he has spoken.

Juror #3

He is a very strong, very forceful, and extremely opinionated man who possesses a streak of sadism. He is humorless and intolerant of opinions other than his own. He often forces his wishes and views upon others.

Juror # 4

He seems to be a man of wealth and position. A practiced speaker who presents himself well at all times. He seems to feel a little bit above the rest of the jurors. He is concerned with the facts of the case. He is appalled at the behaviors of others.

Juror # 5

He is a naïve and friendly young man who takes his obligations in this case very seriously. He has a difficult time speaking up to his elders when they have the floor.

Juror # 6

He is an honest but dull-witted man who comes upon his decisions slowly and carefully. He finds it difficult to create positive opinions but who must listen to and digest and accept those opinions offered by others which appeal to him most.

Juror # 7

A loud, flashy salesman type who has more important things to do than sit on a jury. He is quick to form opinions about things he knows nothing about. He has a temper. He is a bully and a coward.

Juror # 8

He is a quiet, thoughtful, gentle man. He sees all sides of every question and constantly seeks the truth. He is a man of strength and compassion. He wants justice to be done and will fight to see that it is.

Juror # 9

A mild, gentle old man who is defeated by life and now is waiting to die. He regrets opportunities from his past where he could have acted courageously.

Juror # 10

He is an angry, bitter man. He antagonizes just by being around other people. He is a bigot and doesn't value any human life, even his own. His life is meaningless and he knows it.

Juror # 11

He is a refugee from Europe who came to the country in 1941. He speaks with an accent and he is ashamed and humble.

Juror # 12

He is an intelligent advertising man who thinks of human beings in terms of percentages and graphs. He has no real understanding of people. He is superficial but tries to be a good man.
