

JV Girls Drop Two at Home

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls volleyball team lost two matches on their home court in Rexford on October 10.

Their first match was against the Wallace County Wildcats. The Bulldogs improved on playing together as a team but fell to the Wildcats in two sets 20-25, 16-25.

"I think we played really well," said Katie Carter. "We communicated well and got our serves over the net. I think it's the best we've played this year."

Their second match was against the Weskan Coyotes. The girls kept the first set tied at the beginning of the set. The Coyotes pulled ahead midway and claimed the win 25-15. The Coyotes controlled the start of the second set capturing a 14-1 lead before the Dogs fought back and regained some points. It was too little, too late as the Coyotes won the second set and the match 25-16. "We had a lack of communication in this game," added Carter.

The JV girls are 1-9 on the season as they prepare to finish out against Wheatland and Trego on October 15 and will play their last home game on October 18.
