

Name _____

Date _____

Class _____

Lab Safety Guidelines

General Safety

1. You should never eat or drink in the lab.
2. Always keep your lab area clean and organized
3. If you spill chemicals in the lab, it is okay to just pour them down the sink without asking the teacher. True or False
4. If you complete your lab early, it's a great idea to conduct your own lab. True or False

First Aid

5. Immediately report all accidents to your teacher.

Chemical Safety

6. Always handle chemicals carefully/safely/cautiously.
7. Never mix chemicals for fun, or test chemicals.
8. Do not _____ or _____ chemicals. (possible answers: drink,
Consume, spill, inhale, waste)
9. Make sure you clean up or wash your hands when you are done using chemicals.
10. If you need to smell a chemical, you need to waft the scent to your nose by holding the container away from your face and waving your hand over the top

Glassware Safety

11. Never use broken or cracked glassware.
12. Should you drink from lab glassware? no
13. Always clean glassware before putting it away.

Sharp Instruments

14. Always cut materials with the blade going away from your body.
15. After working in the lab you will need to clean your mess.

16. Safety is the key factor in working in the lab.